
The image shows three large, weathered clay pots or jars arranged in a row. The pot on the left is light-colored with several horizontal reddish-brown stripes. The middle and right pots are more plain and show signs of age and wear. The background is dark and out of focus, suggesting an outdoor setting with trees or foliage. Overlaid on the right side of the image is the text "Two Questions: Where is Jesus? Who am I?" in a bold, orange-yellow font with a white outline.

Two Questions:
Where is Jesus?
Who am I?

last week...

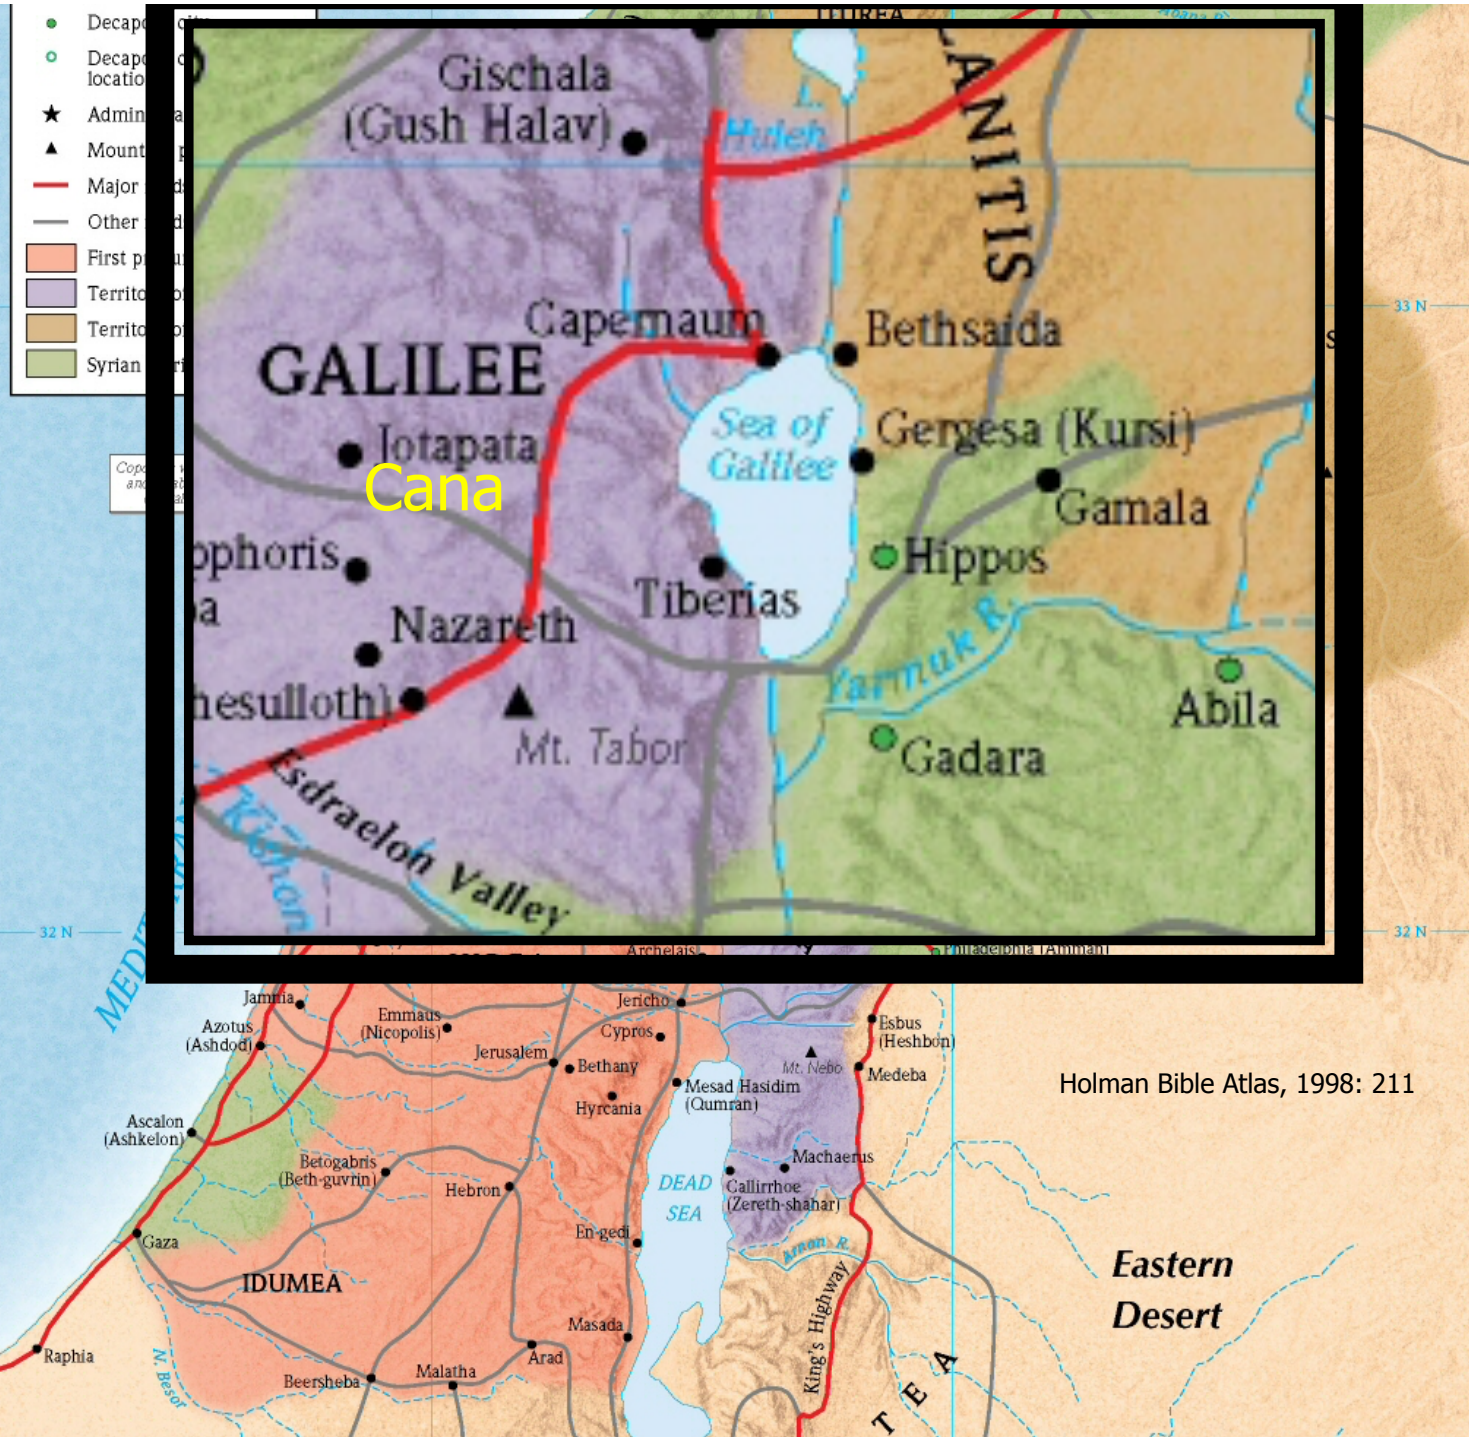

who am I...?

The image shows three large, weathered clay jars (amphorae) in a row. The jar in the foreground on the left is decorated with horizontal red stripes. The middle jar is plain and light-colored. The jar on the right is also plain and light-colored. The background is dark and out of focus, suggesting an outdoor setting. The text 'John 4:43-54' is overlaid in a bold, orange, sans-serif font with a white outline.

John 4:43-54

page 1617

Where is Jesus?

Where is Jesus?

Where is the official?

Where is Jesus?

Where is the official?

Where is the official's son?

Where is Jesus?

Where is the official?

Where is the official's son?

Where is Jesus' power?

John 4

21 Jesus replied, "Believe me, dear woman, the time is coming when it will no longer matter whether you worship the Father on this mountain or in Jerusalem. 22 You Samaritans know very little about the one you worship, while we Jews know all about him, for salvation comes through the Jews. 23 But the time is coming—indeed it's here now—when true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and in truth. The Father is looking for those who will worship him that way. 24 For God is Spirit, so those who worship him must worship in spirit and in truth."

it is not a question of location,
but a question of manner.
(not where but how)

where is Jesus?

(where does Jesus need to be?)

John 4

50 Then Jesus told him, "Go back home. Your son will live!"

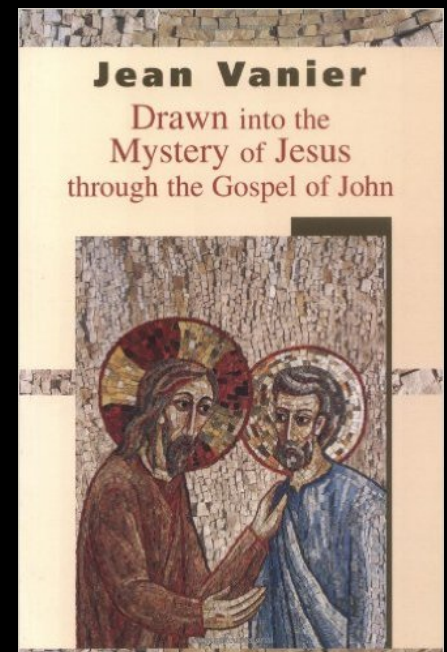

And the man believed what Jesus said and started home.

The image shows three large, weathered clay pots or jars arranged in a row. The pot on the left is light-colored with several horizontal reddish-brown stripes. The middle and right pots are more plain and show signs of age and wear. The background is dark and out of focus, suggesting an outdoor setting with trees or foliage. Overlaid on the right side of the image is the text "Two Questions: Where is Jesus? Who am I?" in a bold, orange-outlined font.

Two Questions:
Where is Jesus?
Who am I?

"The author, under the guidance of the Holy Spirit, chooses certain moments and signs, or miracles, not only to help us believe Jesus is the Son of God and the Son of Man, but also to lead all the disciples of Jesus into an experience of communion with God. At the end of this gospel the evangelist says that he has written it *that you may believe that Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of God and that believing you may have life in his name.

Jn 20:31"*

the communion table...