

November 22 Questions to Consider

1. How would you define abundance? In what ways do you experience abundance? In what ways do you share abundance? In what ways could you be more intentional in sharing abundance?
2. In the parable, Jesus says “be on your guard against all kinds of greed; for one’s life does not consist in the abundance of possessions.” What comes to mind when you hear the word “greed”? How do you see greed and the abundance of possessions being linked?
3. If one’s life does not consist in the abundance of possessions, then what does one’s life consist in?
4. From your perspective, what does it mean to be rich towards God?
5. What are the challenges to being present or perceptive to those around you (family, friends, neighbours)? How are you currently practicing being present or perceptive toward others?
